TO

THE SECRETARY
to the Government of Mysore,
Local Self-Government Department,

Sir,

RE: Halting Allowances to Sri M.A.S. Rajan during the period of his training at the International Statistical Training Centre, New Delhi.

Adverting to G.O. No. M. 12761-62/Cen. 8-49-6 dated the 10th February 1950 sanctioning a consolidated allowance of Rs.150/- per month in lieu of Daily Allowance to Sri M.A.S. Rajan, my First Assistant, for the period of his training in New Delhi, I have the honour to state that this office letter No. 68/Census dated the 23rd December 1949 was written because even a rate of Rs.7-8-0 per day which was in fact passed by the Comptroller under the rules (being 3/4ths the regular Daily Allowance) did not cover the actual expenses of the Officer. As stated in that letter the boarding and lodging charges and the other sundry charges on essential items which Sri Rajan had actually to pay during the period of his stay in New Delhi amounted to Rs.10/- per day. The consolidated allowance of Rs.150/- per month is thus less adequate than even what the Comptroller has passed and has the effect of inflicting on Sri Rajan a loss of about Rs.150/- per month for the period of his stay in Delhi.

2. In this connection, I would like to bring to the notice of Government that the training given to Sri Rajan was not of his seeking. The Government of Mysore as well as the Government of India wanted to utilise the opportunity provided by the opening of the International Statistical Training Centre by the United Nati at New Delhi to get their officers trained in Census practices and in Statistics. Sri Rajan was selected for this training not at his own application but because Government thought that he would be more useful to the Census Department after this trai ing. I think it is only fair under these circumstances that Government should meet the expenses actually incurred by this Officer. If travelling allowances should not be a source of profit, they should not also be a source of injury to the officers concerned. And especially in a case like this where the officer has had absolutely no say in the matter of his being deputed outside the State, it is only reasonable that he should no be out-of-pocket at the end of the training. The ultimate beneficiary of the training course that Sri Rajan has undergone is the State itself rather than Sri Rajan and it is in this view that I wish to urge upon Government that the least it should dc is to avoid converting Sri Rajan's deputation to Delhi into a punishment.

3. Government would perhaps be aware that Sri Rajan had to leave for New Delhi at very short notice almost immediately on being posted as my First Assistant. He had hardly any time for advance preparation and had to undertake the journey against ma handicaps like want of accommodation and so forth. Even after reaching Delhi he had no choice but to avail himself of the arrangements made by the Government of India for the delegates to the Training Centre. The Government of India had set up a hos administered by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research and Sri Rajan had to join it. The authorities of the hostel havin entered into contracts beforehand with the caterers, furnishers etc., would allow no option to the trainees. In his letter No. F.I.(7)/49 Stat. dated the 17th March 1950 addressed to you, th Under Secretary of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research has stated that the expenses incurred by Sri Rajan have come to Rs.10/- per day and has therefore recommended that an allowance of Rs.10/- per day may be paid to Sri Rajan for the period of his stay in New Delhi. I enclose herewith a copy of this letter for your ready reference. There is no doubt, therefore, that Sri Rajan's claim for the full rate of Daily Allowance admissible to him under Rules is only fair and equitable. After all Sri Rajan is not claiming anything over and above the rate that would have been admissible to him for a short stay at New Delhi. He has only claimed exemption from the rule which reduces this rate in the case of a lengthier stay. It would be inappropriate to treat Sri Rajan's case on the analogy of the allowances being granted to the officers of the Accounts Department deputed outside the State for training. As I have stated above Sri Rajan had to stay at Delhi under such circumstances as made it impossible for him to effect those economies which are presumed to be possible during a halt of over a month as compared with a short stay of only a few weeks. Under these circumstances it is the barest justice to Sri Rajan to save him from the financial loss to which he will be put if the allowance of Rs.150/- per month now sanctioned is not revised.

4. I would therefore request that the case of Sri Rajan's halting allowance at Delhi may kindly be reconsidered and that Government may be pleased to allow him the concession recommended by me already, as a very special case in the circumstances explained above.

Yours faithfully,

CENSUS COMMISSIONER
for Mysore.

Sir,

At the request of Mr. M.A.S. Rajan, First Assistant to the Census Commissioner for Mysore, regarding the subsistance allowance of Rs.10/- per day to be paid to him for his stay at New Delhi as a delegate to the International Training Centre on Census and Statistics for South East Asia during the period November 1949 to January 1950, I am directed to say that as far as this office is aware, Mr. Rajan had to incur an expenditure of about Rs.8/- per day on account of boarding and lodging charge at the Centre. Including other incidental charges the daily expenditure may be estimated at about Rs.10/- which is recommende for sanction by you for the period of Mr. Rajan's stay at New Delhi in connection with the training.

ours faithfully,

- T.S. Krishnamurti
